QUESTION	RESPONSE
Due to newly created 'NHS Bristol, North Somerset and South Gloucestershire ICB' the current formulary followed is 'Bristol, North Somerset, & South Gloucestershire (BNSSG) Joint Formulary', are there any plans to create a new formulary, if so what is the timeline and where will it be published, or will you continue to refer to this existing formulary?	Bristol, North Somerset and South Gloucestershire Integrated Care Board (BNSSG ICB) has no plans to create a new formulary and will continue to refer to the existing BNSSG Joint Formulary.

The information provided in this response is accurate as of 16 August 2022 and has been approved for release by Joanne Medhurst, Chief Medical Officer for NHS Bristol, North Somerset and South Gloucestershire ICB.
