Subject: A&E Departments

I can confirm that the ICB does hold some of the information requested; please see responses below:

QUESTION	RESPONSE
1. All hospitals A&E/emergency departments/urgent care services in the NHS Bristol, North Somerset and South Gloucestershire ICB area as of May 2010 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. While I understand that ICBs only came into existence last year, and their precursor CCGs were created in 2012, hopefully retained archival data from the former Primary Care Trusts should be able to help. b. If it is not possible to access this information as far back as May 2010, can you please provide this information for as early as possible and please state the selected date 	Please see response template below
2. The NHS trust and ICB they are under
3. Location of the service/hospital – e.g. town or village

4. The type of emergency/urgent care provision that was provided at the hospital in May 2010 (e.g. major A&E, minor injuries, urgent care centre, etc.)
5. The type of provision that is provided there today
6. Whether or not each department has been ‘downgraded’, ‘upgraded’, had no change, or been shut down entirely, or if it is a brand-new service (A downgrade means a reduction in provision, i.e. if a major A&E unit became an urgent care centre, an upgrade is the opposite)
7. Note: Please include new emergency departments created since May 2010 where no provision had existed before, and mark these N/A or ‘Did not exist’ – under the downgrade/upgrade column this could be classified as new department

Notes:

A downgrade refers to a reduction in service - e.g. a major A&E unit which is now an urgent care centre
An upgrade refers to a higher level of service - e.g. if a minor injuries unit became a major A&E
If an ED has entirely closed since May 2010 please mark a shut down not downgrade but please write 'none' in the provision today column
If a new ED has been created please write 'none' in 2010 provision

The information provided in this response is accurate as of 13th July 2023 and has been approved for release by Lisa Manson, Director of Performance and Delivery for NHS Bristol, North Somerset and South Gloucestershire ICB.
